

SAL Training

is offering a course on

Sexual Abuse & Related Issues

Spread over one day and two evenings, the course looks at many of the issues related to sexual abuse and the impact on victims & their families. It is suitable as CPD for medical staff, counsellors, helpline workers, social workers, and people who provide pastoral care or support to vulnerable people.

Topics covered include:

- ◆ What is sexual abuse?
- ◆ Who are its victims?
- ◆ Who are the abusers?
- ◆ What is helpful/unhelpful for people who have been abused
- ◆ Myths
- ◆ Language
- ◆ Disclosure
- ◆ Coping strategies
- ◆ Inner child concepts

(Throughout this training, there is an emphasis on looking after ourselves.)

Trainer: Carol Hazelton Adv Dip Couns MBACP. Carol has been counselling survivors of sexual abuse for seven years and is the coordinator of the Devon Rape & Sexual Abuse Line.
